THE SIAV GROUP

SIAV

SIAV WANTS TO BE KNOWN FOR BEING SYNONYMOUS WITH INNOVATION AND USER-FRIENDLY TRANSFORMATION OF INFORMATION INTO KNOWLEDGE

Siav is a software development and IT services company founded in 1990 based on the technical experience of its founding partners. It aims to offer its solutions to particular segments of the IT market, characterized by a high level of know-how and by the use of innovative and cutting edge technologies.

Applications are designed to significantly improve the efficiency and quantity of information available, with tools that guide management to measure the value of results achieved.

The company's activity and the solutions developed have led it to a position of absolute leadership in Italy, in the field of document management and workflow products and services, and to an important position even on an international scale.

A company's reputation is one of its most precious assets: it forms the basis of the company's attained competitiveness and is based on strong values. It is, in fact, the values which define a company's strategic Vision, guiding everyone's choices and actions on a daily basis, in order to reach the most important milestones. The values Siav has adopted and identifies with are: Innovation | Excellence | Responsibility | Passion. Siav has also adopted and published its own Code of Ethics.

"Measure what is measurable, and make measurable what is not so"
